

The CSUF Wind Ensemble Festival is this Friday, March 2nd, 2018 and the Esperanza High School Wind Ensemble will be participating in this awesome event.

This is for students in Wind Ensemble only and here is the breakdown of events for the day:

1:15pm - Students released from class

1:30pm - Depart EHS for CSUF

1:55pm - Dropped off at Meng Hall at CSUF

3:00pm - Start Warm Up

3:30pm - Perform

4:00pm - Clinic

4:45pm - Depart for EHS

5:15pm - Arrive at EHS and Unload

Concert Dress is as follows:

Gentlemen: Black Suit or Tuxedo with white shirt and bow tie.

Ladies: Black dress or ankle length skirt with white or black top, black shoes.

For anyone who would like to go to see the performance put on by the Esperanza High School Wind Ensemble at the CSUF Wind Ensemble Festival

Here is some important information for you:

Parents or Guardians and guests can park in the Nutwood Parking Structure (NPS) that is closest to the Claves Performing Arts Center (CPAC). Parking is only free after 5pm on Friday and all day on Saturday.

Parking permits for Friday before 5pm are available and can be purchased for $8 upon entering the parking structure.

Cash is not accepted. Visa, MasterCard and Discover only.

Performances will be held in Meng Concert Hall which is located through the glass doors of the CPAC. All performances are FREE!